

ANS Correspondence

Andrews, Prof. Eugene P.
[Cornell University]

1926-1931

January 16th, 1926

Professor Eugene Andrews
Department of Greek Art
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Next Tuesday evening I am due at Aurora for a talk before the Archaeological Unit. Incident thereto, I must stop at Ithaca from 10:40 a.m. to 4:40 p.m., or thereabouts. I am wondering if it would be possible for me to see you during any of that time.

There will scarcely be time for response, because I am leaving on Monday night. Might I telephone you when I reach your city?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

February 11th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University.
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your two letters received. I will write you about the coin as soon as that reaches us.

Regarding the Scholarship proposition, please make clear to anyone with whom you discuss it, that the thought of having the one who receives the award, continue as a member of the Society after the two years for which his dues have been paid have expired, is a relatively minor element in the scheme. Our thought was merely that if by the time his interest had developed sufficiently to make him want to keep up the connection, the five dollars annual dues would not be a serious burden.

We are having our Constitution and By-Laws reprinted and I am sending you galley proof for your information, which please do not trouble to return.

What you said about one course each semester, can hardly be considered as affecting the situation. It seems to me that it is as much as could be expected for undergraduates work in your Department. The thought in the whole matter was, to give you some incentive to offer your students as well as to give them some return for having produced worth while work.

Answering one of your questions, my thought was to award each year one paid-up Associate Membership for two years. In this way, as you write, we should be carrying two of the pupils each year - and whether or not they are Seniors would be a minor consideration. Of course, it might happen that the one who made the highest marks was not the most interested, but I have no idea as to how this could be overcome.

Professor E. P. Andrews

February 11, 1926

- 2 -

If you are able to come down for the Easter vacation, some of these details might be cleared up at that time. Should your plan crystallize before then, it would be better to present it to the Council promptly.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

February 18th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Herewith, I am sending you the coin of Zancle, of which I spoke. Mr. Newell got it when he was in Philadelphia earlier in the week; but it is in such poor condition, that I hardly advise your keeping it. It was merely taken on approval, so please return it unless you want it very badly.

Very truly yours,

Enc.

Secretary

February 20th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 17th is at hand, and I have shown the two pieces of Caulonia to Mr. Newell. This is merely accase of pieces from the same dies, both of which are beyond question. When you come I shall be able to show you the same duplication in another pair of dies. Tudeer found something like sixty-seven pieces from one die in the Syracusan series.

The Member, of whom I spoke to you as being interested in plated coins, is planning to be here the first week in March. Would you be so kind as to send on the plated Macedonian piece you have - Antigonus, I think.

With cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews,

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

March 4th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Thank you for sending the plated piece, which arrived safely and which has proved of great interest to Dr. Tobinson.

I am planning to return the Caulonia stater to Mr. Raymond. I think that the best course is simply to tell him the facts in the case, and I see no reason why he should have his feelings hurt.

Regarding plans for Easter week, this is the situation: Mr. Newell plans to be away April 7th, 8th and 9th, for a meeting of Orientalists in Washington. Unfortunately, without realizing that the Easter vacation was involved, I accepted an invitation to lecture in Boston on the 8th. I note that you write that you are hoping you can work it for the Easter vacation, which leads me to understand that there may be some inconvenience involved for you. From what you said previously, I also gathered that it might be more convenient for you to come in June.

I am more than sorry that there should be any complications because we very much want to see you. If you could reach here by April 5th, there would, of course, be four full days of that week; and, in all probability, you have other things that you would want to do in New York which would fill in the remainder. Mr. Newell would be here on the 5th and the 6th, and I should not have to leave until the noon of the 8th.

I am laying all these details frankly before you, so your decision may be made with full possession of the facts. Whether you are here for Easter week or later, we hope that nothing will interfere with your coming.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary

March 9th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 6th at hand. We shall look forward to seeing you on Saturday, April 3rd, if you can make it then. I have made arrangements for you at the place where I reside, and I am looking forward to the best kind of a visit with you.

The Caulonia stater has been returned to Mr. Raymond.

If it is just as easy for you to bring the books, to which you refer, when you come, there is no need of sending them before then.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

March 19th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Just a line to tell you that the appointment for Boston has been cancelled. This leaves free the week you are to be here, and I am very glad!

The Metropolitan Museum is to open its new Classical wing on Monday, the 5th, and you will be in time for that.

I am eagerly looking forward to your visit.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

April 15

My dear Noe,

Back on the job and busy as can be, but living over my delightful week with you all the time. Wont you please tell the Misses McAlister too that I am very grateful to have been taken in so like one of the family. But probably I better write them personally, and I shall do it. Of course I shall be eager to know how things shape themselves for you. You are at one of the big partings of the way in your life and I am keenly interested to know which path you decide to start down. Of one big change in your life of course I am assured, but as to whether it is to be N.Y. or N.B. I shall want to know.

I have found three things in Elder's catalogue for his sale the last of this month that I might be interested in. I have sent the list to Wood. I don't want anyone to go way off down there just on my account. I can easily get along without these three coins. But if anyone does get to see them and thinks they are any good, I should be grateful if he could put in a bid as before at a price that seems reasonable. I haven't been able to get over to see Chamot about the coins which Newell and Mrs. Brett wanted me to bring to his attention, but I shall get over very soon and make prompt report.

I am extremely glad that I had the sense to take advantage of your invitation to come down and spend the week as I did. And surely no one ever met a more friendly and helpful welcome.

Yours ever,

Eugene P. Andrews

Am still living the wonderful music of the minstrelsy

May 5th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Mr. Newell has asked me to write concerning your bids at the Elder Sale. Two of them are enclosed.

No.136 was incorreectly described - it is of Side. Because of the counterstamp, Mr. Newell says he will take it in case you do not want it.

No.1132 in very poor condition, and incorrectly described as Caulonia, was not purchased. The piece was Poseidonia.

I have been pretty busy since you left, but that does not mean that I have not thought of you. Matters have not crystallized for me as yet, because Dr. van Lyke has returned only today, and I have not seen him.

We have had some interesting Corinthian pieces sent us which you would enjoy looking over if you were here.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

Encs.

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

May 8

Dear Mr. Noe,

The coins are here. Many thanks to you all for your help. I am glad to have them both, but if Mr. Newell really wants the Side one he shall have it of course. The coins that I brought up with me for Professor Chamot to test are still in his hands. I expect a report from him soon. Shall I let my remittance for these two, $1.10, plus commission, wait until I get your bill for the Corinth ones and make one settlement or shall I send on the dollar plus now? A friend in the jewelry business has turned over to me one of the Gorkan Eryan medals in pretty fair shape which he took in as bullion, for about seventy cents. If Mr. Wood or any others of you want it I shall send it on. I wish indeed that I might see the Corinth pieces that have been sent in to you, but, alas, these are our busy days and I cannot get down, I am afraid. Are these for sale, and are there some that you think I should want for our collection. If that is the case and you could send them up on approval I should make prompt return.

I shall be glad to know that your plans have been settled and as you want them. Naturally, having been let in as I was, I am extremely and earnestly interested. I cannot help but put myself in your place of course.

Elder is certainly careless in his cataloguing, and bidding on his things from his attributions and estimates of condition is futile.

Yours ever,

Erasmus P. Andrews

May 12th, 1926

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Yours of the 8th at hand.

Mr. Newell does not really want the Side piece, but do not remit for the two until you have sent the Gorham Bryan piece which Mr. Wood will be very glad to have, and for which he will make you a reasonable offer as soon as he receives it.

Regarding the Corinth pieces, there are two lots - a second lot from Baldwin supplements those which you saw when you were here and has nothing striking in it. Another lot from a Marseilles dealer, Ravel, I am sending. The prices for the pieces in fine condition are a little high, and I am not sure that any of them will be such as you want; but if you do, I shall be the more pleased.

Nothing definite about my plans as yet.

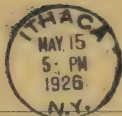

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

Saturday May 11

Both packages here yesterday. ^{Prize} Thanks don't think I shall think I can afford many of them. Shall probably return them
Monday and send the Begon along.

L. P. Borden

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Mr. Sydney P. Hoe,
Am. Unitarian Socy.,
Broadway at 156th St.,
New York City

June 2nd, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 18th deserved an earlier response but it is only today that I have gotten to sending back the coins to Baldwin and to Havel, and to figuring up accounts accordingly.

Your totalling of what you call your "indebtedness" is quite correct, as you will see by the enclosed memorandum.

Mr. Wood will send you his personal cheque for whatever the Bryan piece brings, but he has not yet been downtown with it.

I hope the rush of Commencement will not leave you all tired out!

Very truly yours,

Enc

Secretary

June 17th, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Thank you very much for your letter of the 7th.
The University cheque has already been received.

I note what you say about further lots of coins such as those which were sent you, and if there is something which might appeal to you, it will be a pleasure to have them forwarded.

Very cordially yours,

Secretary

November 8, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Department of Green Art and Antiquities,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

I am more than sorry that it has been impossible to reply to your nice letter of October 5th before this. I took it with me on my Western trip, during which I lectured in eight places for the American Society of Archaeology, but it did not get answered en route either. Had it been humanly possible, we should have stopped at Itasca on our way back. I did get out of the train to see whether by one of those strange coincidences which you and I believe in you might be there on the platform (last Saturday), but I did not see you.

I am writing now more about Mr. Hill than the coins to which your letter referred. The whole matter will come up at the meeting of the Managing Committee in December, and from all indications it will be a lethal gathering. There are some who do not hesitate to speak of the method used by Professor Capps as underhanded. He has as long been the only active member of the Committee apparently that there has come to him a measure of authority such as no one else possesses. There has long been dissatisfaction with Mr. Hill's delay in publishing the current excavations, but aside from this there seems to be no serious charge which would warrant his being dropped. Mr. Caskey, of the Boston Museum, is doing all he can for Mr. Hill, and there seems to be an element of Princeton politics involved in that. The Assistant Director at ~~Princeton~~ Mr. Merritt, has been given a berth there to relieve the situation which arose through his appointment to Princeton without the concurrence of the other members of the Classical Department.

I hope it will be possible for you to be present at the meeting of the Committee. If you would like further information, Miss Cavanaugh of Smith College is informed, or I shall be glad to write to you at greater length if you care to have me do so.

Please give my warmest regards to your good wife.

Very sincerely yours,

December 22, 1926

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Prof. Andrews:

Thank you much for the carbon of your letter to Prof. Perry. I wish there might be more who would express themselves with equal forcefulness. I hope you are going to Cambridge because the final scrap will take place there. Recent developments have been so rapid, that I am not in touch with them. If you is so to Cambridge Prof. Telford of Yale has just come back from Athens and can possibly give you any information you might need.

I understand that Chase has secured a subsidy from the Rockefeller Foundation and pretend that this will be used as a club, if possible. I hardly think Chase will welcome an impartial investigation for the reason that it may be difficult to substantiate some of the statements that he has made. It might be questioned whether he has not had a free hand with the school long enough.

With cordial greetings of the season to yourself and Mrs. Andrews, I am as ever

Very sincerely yours,

SPW:MB

February 28, 1927

Professor F. F. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y..

Dear Professor Andrews:-

Now that mid-year exams are over, I presume you will have time for selection of the member of your class who is to receive the two years' membership here. If so, will you be good enough to communicate the name to me so that it may be reported to the next meeting of the Council on March 31st..

Since you have sent me another selection of Greek notes, including valuably at my request, the Imense Notes of Metastasis. Would you also be good enough to make a selection of those that I do not consider priced exorbitantly and send them to you, or don't you care to be bothered with them at this time?

Please say that I asked you to give my greetings to Mrs. Andrews.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

OFF:ME

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

March 3

Dear Noe,

Two boys in my coin class were so good and so nearly equally good that I had to call them in together, explain the matter of the prize membership, and ask them to come to some agreement as to which was to have it. It was a surprise to them, for I have thought it better not to announce it as a thing to be worked for; I like better to give it as a reward for good work done with no other idea than the desire to do good work. It seems that they tossed a coin and the winner is Wilson Hamilton, a member of Psi Upsilon here at 1 Central Avenue, with home address Caledonia, N.Y. Caledonia is near Rochester, so, if you could give him the address of those two collectors in Rochester, it might lead to something perhaps. He expects to be in N.Y. at Easter and will surely get up to see you. Both the boys are about as fine boys as one could want to know. The other is George Harding Lewis Jr., a member of the Chi Phi fraternity, 107 Edgemoor Lane, home address Norfolk, Va. If you could write him a little note to sort of make up for his losing out on the coin-toss and inviting him perhaps to come up and meet you all, or something like that, I think he would like it: I know that I should, under like circumstances. Hamilton promptly put in an order for a Historia Numorum at the Co-on as soon as I mentioned it as an authority. He was staggered naturally when he came to get the bill but is now glad he has it. As I said, both are the type we should be glad to welcome to the clan.

I should be glad to look the Spink coins over. I wish you and your wife could have breakfast with us tomorrow morning. Sundays and Thursdays are pancake days with us and the days when we have our very special friends at our board.

That wedding present of yours is coming someday, when I can muster the pep and time to finish it. I am carrying over 130 pupils this term and play out so much more quickly than I used to nervously. I get out for long walks in the hills almost every Sunday, 16 miles last Sunday, and that keeps me going, but, when the day's work is over, I just seem to clamor to get out of things. Very disappointing and very different from what it used to be.

Mrs. Andrews sends her most cordial greeting. It will be great fun to have you both at our table next time you are up this way, and may it not be too long before the time comes.

What is Hill going to do? The whole distressing thing seemed to me a terrible pity.

Yours ever sincerely,

Eugene P. Andrews

My best to Mr. Newell and Mr. Ward

March 5, 1927

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Thank you for your letter of the 2nd and for the word about the award of membership to Mr. Hamilton.

Regarding the Spink coins, I am making a selection, or shall do so as soon as I can find a moment for it. Only the pieces which are reasonable in my estimation are being sent you. The prices on the others are exorbitant to my way of thinking and the condition of some of them would hardly make them desirable for you.

Thank you for the greetings from Mrs. Andrews. How nice it would be if we could accept your invitation for breakfast. Is there any possibility of your getting down this way during the Easter holidays this year? Last Easter doesn't seem so far away after all, does it?

I am glad to have you ask about Mr. Hill. There was a testimonial dinner to him last night, at which only warm sympathizers and close friends were present and mostly from nearby, although Caskey and his wife came from Boston and Professor David Robinson from Baltimore, for the occasion. There were between thirty and forty present, I should judge. A purse of something over $3,000 was presented, but the nicest thing about the whole performance, was the spirit of affectionate regard which characterized it all. Mr. Hill was sailing for Athens on the midnight steamer. I believe he plans to spend sometime there clearing up details in preparation for the publication of the Corinth excavations. The minority in the managing committee has by no means given up and there is room for feeling that their opposition to the injustice that has been done, if handled wisely, may still hope for results, even though there is at present no definite objective.

Professor E. P. Andrews

- 2 -

I wish I could join you on one of your Sunday walks, although sixteen miles is more than I could manage at first, I am sure. I too am glad when Sunday comes and lately have not been sorry to have the additional day a week which we take in lieu of Saturday afternoon. You would enjoy the Carnarvon collection which has just been given to the Metropolitan Museum by Mr. Harkness and which is very inadequately described in the February bulletin. The standard is an exceptionally high one and the beauty of the material is quite indescribable. So often Museum exhibits can be important without being beautiful.

Mr. Fowell and Mr. Wood send greetings. Please say that I asked to be remembered most cordially to your wife.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

SPN:MB

March 10

Dear Noel,

The eleven coins are here. I shall keep them until I can show them to my children. Shall probably mail them to you the 15th unless you are in a hurry. Don't believe I shall keep many. It's a Possidonia statue I want especially and I suppose that would cost more than I could afford. I have one of the small ones. Glad to know about Bill. I cannot see what good it will all do, though. Cuppo is base, miserably. He gets results, even if he too frequently, as a friend of his remarked,

"leaves a trail of blood."

Our best to you.

Did like to tell Browne that his story in the humanist is delicious

E. J. Andrews.

March 11, 1927

Professor E. F. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:-

Your coins at hand. It will be entirely satisfactory for you to have the coins a week beyond the 15th, if you wish to. I am keeping in mind the Roscorla sister. Another of our members is desirous of having one of these, so that it will be easy to keep you both in mind. Glad you enjoyed Mr. Browne's tale.

With cordial greetings to you and yours, I am

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

SPN:MB

March 12, 1927

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Herewith is a carbon of a letter to Mr. Lewis, which explains itself. I am very glad over this outcome.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

SPN:MB
Encl.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

March 15

Dear Noe,

I am keeping four coins:

Spink No. 31, Metapontum,	2 pounds
" "100, Croton	1 pound
" "102, "	15 shillings
Ravel No. 3342, Metapontum,	$6.

The other seven I am returning with this letter. Many thanks for giving me a chance at them. I think that it would be the best way for you to make out a bill for the four, in dollars, including your postage, so that I can O.K. it and have the office send you a check.

I am always in the market for nice coins which are reasonably priced, so, if any come along, just shoot them along up and I shall make prompt return.

Yours ever,

Eugene P. Andrews

Wm. B. B. B.

one copy

Received	2357	-	Wm. B. B.	10
	3356	-		20

Spine	42	-	Wm. B. B.
	36	-	Wm. B. B.

EDWARD T. NEWELL PRESIDENT

SYDNEY P. NOE
SECRETARY

CABLE ADDRESS:
"NUMISMA" NEW YORK

HARROLD E. GILLINGHAM
TREASURER

HOWLAND WOOD CURATOR

TELEPHONE:
WADSWORTH 7735

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY
BROADWAY BETWEEN 155TH AND 156TH STREETS
NEW YORK

May 17, 1927

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y..

Dear Professor Andrews:

In our rush yesterday I failed to give you the enclosed memorandum for the Spink and Ravel coins, which we have just paid for through our bank.

It was a real pleasure to see you and I hope that Mrs. Andrews will not fail to give me the pleasure of greeting her too. Your visit was all too short, but I am very glad you found that Mr. Newell had something among his duplicates that you wanted. I hope some day that my wife and I may welcome you in our home.

Very cordially yours,

Sydney P. Noe

Secretary

SPN:MB
Encl.

5/18

Dear Mrs.

I remembered this too, as soon as I was on the subway. I expect Mrs. Andrews will get up to see you; perhaps with her sister, Mrs. T. D. Wheeler of Rye. Glad to have had even such a bit of a glimpse of you. Send up now come when they show up. As ever, S.P.N.

19th January, 1928

2 copies - 1 to Cornell at Ithaca; the other to Cornell Club, Madison & 38th St. N.Y. City

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 18th brought very welcome news. I shall be here all day Saturday, and I think it very likely that Mr. Newell will - it will be more likely that he will when he learns that there is prospect of seeing you. I am so glad that you are going to give us a slice of Saturday. There will be many threads to be picked up.

Cordially yours,

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

January 27

Dear Mr. Newell,

The coins arrived safely and I enclose my check for the amount, fiftyfour dollars. Many thanks to you. I am very glad to have the charming Agathocles in our collection. Of course you know that, if I could, my visits would be much more frequent. I never get to the city, with any time that is my own, without getting up to see you all. May I suggest that whenever any of you have a coin that you think might interest me, or a lot of coins, I should take it as a favor if you would just ship them up to me and give me a chance to look them over. I shall make my selections promptly and get them back to you without delay.

The pupil this year whom I should like to recommend for our honorary membership is Benjamin W. Brown, 103 McGraw Place, Ithaca, home address 600 West 111th St., New York. While his work has not been quite up to the grade of the other boys, ^{of the past,} he has done good work and is a mighty fine fellow. His father is building the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. He lives not so far from 156th St. and I hope may get over to meet you all. That is the hard part: I think the boys are a bit afraid to pose as numismatists. If there were only some way to get them started in feeling a bit at home in the Society. He is a chum of Francis Cutler Bethell of Montclair, the Telephone Bethells, another corking fine chap, whose grade was not quite as good as Brown's however. If the two could get up together sometime you would enjoy meeting them.

I have said nothing to the class about this honorary membership and nothing to Brown about my recommendation of him. So if the thing can be explained to him in his notification it will perhaps enhance the pleasure of the surprise. I am glad that you all feel that, if even one out of a dozen catch the delightful infection, the scheme is a success, for you know how difficult it is to transmute a classroom duty into a life-interest. I shall live in hope that some one of these fine boys who expose themselves to my wiles may want to go further. It might even happen that the seed may sprout in later years even if we see no results at first. At any rate they are the sort we want to reach for.

Yours ever sincerely,

Eugene P. Anderson

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

January 27

Dear Noe,

Here are the Maronea coins, two silver and one bronze. I find that I had one of the big tetradrachms after all, like the Hunter Coll. p.381, ^{weight 16.35.} No.17. The oldest one I send I have catalogued as Babelon I 1318, 1761, (no grapes). Compare H.C.I. p.379 No.2.

The other AR as B.M.C. p.127, No.42

The AE as B.M.C. p.129, No.67. H.C. I. p.380, No.9

I am returning also the charging snapshots. Mrs. Andrews was delighted to see them. As I have written to Mr. Newell, I shall be glad to have a chance at any lot of coins that comes to you if you can bother to send them up. Meanwhile remember, please, that I am in the market for a Poseidonia stater of "Italian Fabric".

It was mighty nice to have the little visit with you all. I wish that I could get down oftener.

Yours ever,

Andrews

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

January 31

Dear Mr. Newell,

I can very well understand how the coin-dealers might act, especially in a case like that of Miss Davis' coin, where they might think that you ought to turn such a quest over to them, for them to get a rake-off. You may rely on two things, however, my gratitude and my discretion. What I was referring to particularly, however, was a chance at bunches of coins sent over to you or to Nee on approval, where I should like to see them after you have taken what you want. It would be rather hard to rake out a list of what I should be glad to have, there are so many things I need, even to make our little collection representative, which is of course what I am after. No one has looked over coins over and will perhaps remember vaguely what we have. But, in the main, it is a chance to look over lots once in a while out of which I am almost sure to find things that would help me out. If I were within range, I should want to run up to 156th Street frequently, to glance at what has come in to you, that you were returning. Wayne Raymond has good coins always that I want, but my experience has been that they cost more than I feel justified in paying. I am a little afraid of getting Chapman into the habit of shipping lots up to me on approval, it might get to be a nuisance. But perhaps it would be worth the bother after all. Many thanks for your sympathy and help. I have been wondering if it might not be a good plan, hereafter, instead of simply awarding the honorary membership, to make sure that the boy would like it, and would probably get something out of it. That is, talk it over with the eligibles, one after the other, and finally select the one who seemed to promise most good from it, rather than simply to select, offhand, the one whose work was best and whose personality seemed most suitable, as has been my practice so far. What do you think? I am sure you will say "Why, of course, that is the only sensible way". I cannot see why the idea never occurred to us before. So perhaps I better get hold of Brown right away and see what his reaction is. I shall let you know at once.

2

Yours ever sincerely,

Eugene P. Andrews

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

February 4

Dear Nee,

I had a talk with Brown yesterday and he is much pleased at the honor and would be glad to accept. I think he would get over to meet you all rather promptly although he has had enough coins now to realize that he knows nothing and would be inclined to be overawed. He is a fine fellow and I hope can meet you all and learn to know what a human place the Society is. At least he promises to call, and that is something. The coins are here O.K. They belong to the University and I am not sure that I have a right to trade the archaic Maronea, although it would be doing a lot more good in Mr. Newell's collection than here. A pity it is holed. E. I. Wheeler bought it of Lambros in Athens in 1896 for twenty francs. Mr. Newell is of course welcome to it to use any time he wants it.

The Christmas card was entirely Mrs. Andrews. She got some pine branches, arranged them ^{on the} outside our backporch ^{drawing room} window, with a light behind them, and then sketched their shadow on a big paper tacked up in the ~~dining room~~ window. The ~~drawing~~ was reduced to a zinc plate and the paper printed. I liked it a lot.

Maybe I will send ~~back~~ the late tetradrachm, if you don't mind. ^{Am doing as her wish.} I have no need for two, in my sort of collection and you could probably get rid of it. I wish I had a few of the sort of envelopes you mail going in. Can you give me the address of a firm that sells them, and would they sell the few I could use?

Just remember you Always yours, ours me $5. Too much bother putting it through the Business Office. E. P. Andrews

14th February, 1928

Professor W. P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Andrews:

I enclose this carbon for your information, and I am taking this opportunity to return your three Maroneia coins and would also acknowledge receipt of the piece you returned - I will endeavor not to lose sight of the fact that I owe you $3.00.

Yours ever,

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK ART AND ANTIQUITIES
CORNELL UNIVERSITY
ITHACA, NEW YORK

E. P. ANDREWS

February 26

Dear Joe,

Thank you for your letter in regard to Brown's election to the honorary membership. I find that he got his degree this month and had left for New York before your notification reached Ithaca. It may be that his fraternity (which was his Ithaca address, to which you directed your letter) forwarded it to him. But, if you do not hear from him, you might address him at his New York home, at the address I gave you (was it 111th St?). If you have not kept my letter I can get the address for you again at the Dean's office. I hope that some time one of my boys may want to keep up his interest in coins and will use this splendid chance which the Society gives him. The trouble is that so few of my boys have any classical background at all and learn just about enough about coins to be aghast at what they do not know, if you catch the point. So they are scared, I think, to come around and pretend to know anything. I hope Brown may at least make one visit and meet you people. He says he goes to church in the next street to you; would that be 155th St.? Seems to me I remember a church there.

Our best to you both always,

19th March, 1928

professor N. P. Andrews,
Department of Greek Art and Antiquities,
Cornell University

Dear Andrews:

Referring to your letter of February 26th regarding Mr. Brown, I am writing to say that he called here about a week ago and we had a very delightful afternoon with him. He is planning to go abroad with his mother shortly and thought he might get here again before sailing. We gave him some pointers regarding Sicily, and I hope he will get something by way of experience which will be useful to him.

Please say that I asked you to give my cordial greetings to your wife.

Very truly yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

June 29

Dear Noe,

I am sending you by registered mail with this a package containing:

1. One Poseidonia drachm, returned from the lot I took, price $15.
5. Five Lysimachus. 1 ob. stater, 3 tetradrachms, two drachms.
1. One Aspendus with inscription in exercise.
1. One Syracuse AR.
1. One Ptolemy VI. AR
12. Twelve AR various.

The Poseidonia drachm duplicates one I have, so I am returning it and deducting $15. from my bill.

The Lysimachus coins I am sending to Mr. Newell for him to use in his publication if he desires to.

The Aspendus I am loaning to him for one year. It is of course a poor specimen, but interesting on account of its rarity, and it seemed to me that, in his care, or in that of the Society, more people would have a chance to see it than would be the case up here.

The Syracuse I promised to send him on his offer to pronounce on its genuineness. The type does not seem to occur either then in electrum, but I can detect no signs of its being, as it probably must be, a fake.

The Ptolemy was in the lot I bought from you. I wonder if you can give me the data for its identification as of Ptolemy VI. and can refer me to any publication of it. I suppose I ought to have looked up Syracuse before sending it down, but I should like also, if possible, what history is available of this coin: where and when found etc.

The coins are an imposition on the courtesy of any of you who can glance at them. I have worked on them with what books I have but without definite or assuring success. They are not worth the time of any of you. But if some of you is familiar with any of them and can locate them for me without much more than a glance I shall be grateful.

I enclose my check for $81.35, computed as follows:

Mr. Newell, Five cistophori @ 2.25	$11.25	R. Lewis
Tarsus stater	8.
Philistis drachm	6.
siglos	3.
Ptolemy VI tetradr.	3.
Gortyna stater	15.
Velia, VI Cent.	4.60
Larissa didr.	5.
Phalanna AE	3.	$58.85

Mr. Noe, Antiochus VIII dr.	.50
Antiochus VII "	1.
Acarnania dr.	1.
Sicyon	.50
Agathocles tetradr.	10.
Mis triobol	.50
2 Philus @ 1.00	2.
Poseidonia dr.	15.
AE	32.

$44.50 $101.35

Total of coins bought at Am.Numismatic Socy June 22 and 23, 1928 $101.35.

Returned Poseidonia drachm	$15.
Coin previously returned	5.
	20
Net	81.35
	101.35

I shall be really much distressed if any of you puts much time on the AM junk that I am presuring to send. If some of them can be located at a glance, it will be a relief to get them off my desk.

I am also returning herewith the charming picture of the twins. Mrs. Andrews was very glad to see it. She says that one of them looks very much like you.

Please tell Mrs. Nos. that I enjoyed my little visit in New Brunswick more than I can tell. I hope that she and Mrs. Andrews can meet before so very long. It seems to me that they are much the same type of splendid woman.

I do not need to tell you what fun it was to get back where it seems so much like home to me at 158th Street, and I hope that you and Mr. Newell will remember that I shall be very glad of a chance at any coins that come in. I have quite a bit of money still to spend on my appropriation, and you people might as well have it as anyone else. Also I shall deem it a great kindness to have such opportunity. I did not find such attraction at Guttas Bros. I bought three coins, not because I was especially keen about what they had but because I want to be known. They have not much of a stock, only what is brought in.

With our very kindest regards to you and to your wife,

Yours ever sincerely,

Ernest P. Andrews

10th July, 1928

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Andrews:

Yours of June 28th is at hand and so today are the coins which you sent. I have turned over the ones which were intended for Mr. Newell, and am sending back, under separate cover, the bronze pieces with some very slight identifications of perhaps half of them. I had to delay replying until Mr. Newell came in from the country - something he did not do all last week.

The Syracuse coin is not genuine. Regarding the coin of Ptolemy VI, Mr. Newell referred me to monograph No. 33, Two Recent Egyptian Hoards. It came from one of these hoards. Mr. Newell was very glad to get the Lysimachus pieces and has taken them to make casts. Thank you for sending the Aspendus piece as a loan.

It was nice of you to write as you did about the pleasure your visits gave you here. The pleasure is one which we all feel while you are with us; we wish we might enjoy it oftener.

With cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews, I remain

Very cordially yours,

22d September, 1928

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 23th is at hand.
Mr. Collins has been here a number of times with his wife. He gets them direct from Europe where his father travels about and picks them up. His prices are a little high but collective bargaining is a possibility if two or three persons are considered.
Mr. Sewall has retained some very choice pieces from his, and my share is the majority of cases when the price is offered you.
If you are in any doubt as to his prices being just we shall be glad to advise you if you will be specific in your queries.
I am returning the list of rabbits, which hardly do justice to the skins, I may say is passing.

I am sorry to hear of your father's illness. I know your summer has been a terrible one even if you did not go to Alaska.
My vacation has been in the form of my sailing day off each week, but as it has been spent at home working it has not been such of a vacation.

Please say I asked you to give my greetings to Mrs. Andrews.

Sincerely yours,

Nov. 8

Dear Nee,

Thank you for your letter about Mr. Kellad. He sent me some of the coins on the rubbing-sheets which I sent you and I bought the Kuboea tetradrachm for $1.00, the Amphipolis drachm for 50, the Dardanos for 18, and the Magnesia for 22. I told him that I considered his prices rather high and a letter from him, received after I had mailed the other coins back to him with a check for $1.95 for the four I kept, intimates that he might, as you suggested, shade prices on a lot. I wanted the Paros didrachm but hesitated to ask the auditor to pass a bill for $95 for five coins. I have now written him that if he will reduce the price on the Paros didr. to $75., making it 270 for the five, I might be tempted. I do not want to seem mean, and I paid his list prices on the four I took. Can you allow yourself to give me an opinion as to whether I overpaid on the four I bought and as to the fairness of my offer for the five? I do not want to put you between two fires, for he is a member of the Socy as much as I am. But you people naturally have a far better idea of prices-current than I can possibly have up here, and I should deeply appreciate any help you feel justified in giving. I have written him that I am not looking for profit, that I am trying to save our collection representative, for educational purposes. The Kuboea coin seemed to me a buy, unless there have been found several lately.

Yours always,

E. P. Anderson

12th November, 1928

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Yours of November 8th is at hand, and I am writing immediately because Mr. Powell tells me that the Paros didrachm to which you refer was rather badly soiled and not worth the £25 which you had offered for it. As for the other coins, the Amphipolis piece is high-priced, but this is more than compensated for by the Laboea tetradrachm. About the other two, his recollection is not so clear, but he thought that the prices were not excessive taken all in all. Under the circumstances you did right in suggesting a reduction on the Paros piece, and if it has been sent you you are entirely warranted in retaining it because of its condition. Furthermore, you are in a position to demand something of a reduction on anything else you may get from him in view of your having paid asking-prices for the other four coins.

As I think I wrote you, his prices are high but he will usually consider a reduction.

Please feel perfectly free to call upon us for any similar help at any time.

With cordial regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Secretary

28th November, 1928

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Yours of the 26th is at hand, and I think you have done fairly well. Don't be afraid to offer less than any dealer asks you. You may have a surprise as to how much less they will take. I am sorry we have not had any consignments recently that we could send you.

Thank you for the word of your father's release. I shall be looking forward to seeing you and Mrs. Andrews during the Institute meetings.

Yours ever

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

December 12

Dear Sir,

I am not sorry after all. I am not disappointed. But a bill has come in for some repairs on my house that makes me feel poor, and that it would cost me to go to N.Y. with my bill. I am sure if Mr. Newell will send me the Berlin vases I will accept, with thanks. Glad you think I came off fairly well with Mr. Kellai. I kept my Whillatis. It has flaked in several places on the side. Perhaps I will send it to you for inspection. Mr. Kellai indeed said he very much liked it. Mr. Newell also spoke of the flaking. I have obtained what seems to me some very desirable coins and am glad to have them. I am going to send you all more than I can sell, but it has cost so like the devil to take a N.Y. trip.

As ever

E. G.

13th December, 1928

Dr. E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Dr. Andrews:

Yours of the 12th is at hand, and I think it would be hard to say which of us is the more disappointed. I don't know how many of the sessions of the Institute I shall be able to attend, but I am frank to admit that my major interest therein lies in the prospect of seeing friends. Perhaps you will be better able to consider coming during the Easter vacation.

Please tell Mrs. Andrews that I wish you both a joyful Christmas and a New Year-full of happiness.

Very cordially yours,

5th January, 1929

Professor W. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Some time ago you told me that you questioned the wisdom of your purchase of the Knossos stater which you acquired from Tayle Harwood. If you still feel this way about it and would care to cash in on it, I think I know of a collector who might care to purchase it. If you will let me know the lowest figure you will accept for it and send the piece on at your convenience, I will do my best under the circumstances. If you decide that you do not care to entertain this suggestion, I should be glad to have a prompt response to that effect.

With cordial wishes for the New Year, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

31st January, 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter is at hand. I, too, wish you could fly down here. May be you will come down at Easter time.

I am returning the rubbings. Mr. Kellad seems to thrive on your abuse, so we will recommend more of it. So far as I can remember, $230 is all that the Thasos lot is worth. Do not pay any more for it. For the Mende piece $65 is ample. The Soli piece is well worth $25; the Lyttus considerably under $25. $100 would be fair for the three. If you decide on taking the Thasos as well, why not make an offer of $300 for all of them? Bear in mind that you can always raise your bid if it is not successful and if you still want to raise it. You should also remember that Mr. Kellad has presumably sounded out the market pretty well before sending the coins to you, and this is the reason that he is willing to accept offers.

I think the Mende piece is one of the varieties on my Plate III, but the rubbing is not sufficiently distinct for me to identify it. I remember the coin as being in not the best of condition. I hope this will help you in your decision.

With cordial greetings to Mrs. Andrews, I am

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

5th February, 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your coin, which I am returning herewith, is a very interesting one. I have shown it to Mr. Newell this morning, and he agrees with me that the reverse die is probably No. 862. The obverse is entirely new, so far as we have been able to discover. I am making an impression of your coin to send to M. Ravel.

I should be glad to have your impression of the monograph otherwise. You will of course detect some of the author's limitations. I think that you will also be quick to appreciate the value of the material itself. Just consider my labors in hammering his statements into English!

With regards to Mrs. Andrews, I am

Very cordially yours,

Secretary

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

Council

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
February 9

Dear Noe,

I am glad you found our Ambracia interesting. Wish that I had had the sense to send it to you earlier, for I knew that you and M. Ravel were working on the Ambracia colts. I offered Kellad 300 for the Thasos lot plus the Mende, Soli and Lyttus. He came back with an offer of the last three for $85, which I have accepted. The Mende is pretty badly etched with acid in the cleaning, but I am glad to have one of the series and also, of course, the Soli. The Lyttus I am interested to have because I have visited the site and also because I am glad to have such a striking and interesting type for my boys to run down. By the way, do you know of any work where such animal types can be run down, as one can run inanimates down in hand? Kellad says that he must refer my offer for the Thasos lot, in so far as it affects the tetradrachm, to its owner in Greece. He will have heard, he thinks, by the end of the month. Hope Mr. Newell has not let the Sardes cistophorus go. I am tempted to send on the $5. to nail it. Has he many other duplicates? It might pay me to run down to look them over. I have been very glad to get some of the coins he has let me have. I think that the boy I shall recommend for the temporary prize membership this time is Arthur L. Douglas jr. 415 Stewart Avenue, Ithaca. His home address is Forest Hills, L.I. Of course, like all my boys, he has only a beginning, but he is a fine boy and is, I think, interested and a possible prospect for the Socy. He is shy, for he knows enough to know something of how much he does not know. I hope he will get up to see you all. But they are all scared, for I perhaps do too good a job on any cockiness.

Yours

CRA

11th February, 1929

Professor Eugene B. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter is at hand. Mr. Newell has given me the cistophorus and we are enclosing it. I am glad to have the name of your nominee for this year's membership. After the next meeting of our Council, which will take place on March 8th, I will write him of his election and will endeavor to overcome some of his diffidence.

I suspect you will have a favorable response from Mr. Kellad regarding your offer of the Thasos coins. If I thought that telling you Mr. Newell had a great lot of duplicates would bring you here, I am afraid I should attempt to create such an impression. Unfortunately, however, that isn't so. Nevertheless, we would like to see you. Perhaps I can think of some other excuse.

Cordially yours,

18th Feb., 1929

Professor W. F. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Yours of the 15th is at hand. Thank you for the cheque. Mr. Jewell tells me that he is likely to be in Cambridge for the meeting of the Orientalists on April 2d, 3d, and 4th. If this causes you to decide to come down here before the Easter vacation, so much the better. There will probably be enough at the week to enable you to come then if you do not come beforehand. We shall be glad to see you whenever.

Cordially yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
March 13

Dear Noe,

Here is the check for the coins from Baldwin, nos. 2,3,6,9,16,19,34.
Shillings
4,4,2,3,25,60,10
totalling 108 sh., at 4sh per dollar equals $27.

I have written Mr. Newell that I was so excited on Saturday that I cannot remember what of his Syrian kings I turned down. I have asked him to send me a list of what I left, so that perhaps I might get some more. I am afraid that he may not have time to make such a list or may not care to do it. Anyway I got most of those I wanted probably, so, if he is surprised that I should ask such a thing, please tell him that you are sure that I shall understand, if he cannot do it. I certainly enjoyed my numismatic spree. Did you know that I returned after dinner, William let me in, with Mr. Newell's telephoned permission, and I spent the evening cataloguing my new acquisitions.

Coins sent - (14)

Yours ever,

Registered 100⁰⁰ value

3/14/29 R—

E.P.H.

(over)

I'm enclosing Mr. Russell's check & the letter to him. If you think my request for the list is too cheeky just give him the check and suppress the letter.

14th March, 1929

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Thank you for your letter enclosing the two degrees. When Mr. Howell had sent his note from you, he thought it would be simpler to send the diploma, and there are 14 enclosed herewith. I think he has added one or more to those you saw.

We, too, enjoyed your stay, and I personally am very sorry that it was not possible for us to see more of you while you were here. Please give my best regards to Mrs. Andrews.

Yours ever,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
March 20

Dear Roe,

I returned to Mr. Nowell today 11 of the 14 coins he sent, keeping three and sending him check. It was very good of you both to give me another chance at the Seleucids; apparently however I had made my selections rather carefully before. Mr. Kellad sends me the enclosed list of rubbings. He says that Mr. Nowell bought some of the flat tetradrachms at $10 apiece. I have told him that I cannot see how he can expect me to pay the same that he charged for the pick, that is, for the rest. Or are these that are left worth the price? Of course I expect to have offered me only remainders from what he has offered his more important customers. My point was that he ought not to quote those prices to me for such remainders. Am I wrong? Please always be perfectly frank with me. I am such a tyro in the purchasing game and have no prices current to refer to. So you must let me run to you, if you can stand it. I cannot locate the last 4drachm in either the BMC or in the Historia Numorum. ^{9. 1) 13 6- 7.} Is Lampsakos right for No. 7? I want the Camirus, or a Camirus sometime. ⁶⁻ I have none. Please give me a notion what you consider fair prices for all but the Imperial Greek. You may write on the sheet, for he doesn't want the rubbing-sheets back. Anytime you or Mr. Nowell have coins that you think might interest me, please ship them up. I shall make my choice promptly and get them back to you by return mail. The Campus is covered with robins and I am glad. Now for 67 exam books!

Always yours,

E. P. H.

March 21, 1929

Professor E. P. Andrews
Goldwin Smith Hall
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 20th came this morning, and as Mr. Newell reached here shortly afterward, there is no reason to delay answering it.

The Tetradrachms of Athens are worth not more than from six to seven dollars each. The last one that you failed to locate is listed in Head, under Tetradrachms and Denosthenes, on Page 323.

Regarding the Carinus piece, $15.00 is cheap, in fact Mr. Newell says this is the cheapest coin in the lot.

Regarding the two for which $30.00 is asked - this is a fair price. One piece identified as Leysikes is so classed Habelon at the beginning of his volume, and toward the end of it is considered as coming from Palestine. Mr. Newell says the former is the more reasonable attribution. I am returning your sheet, and I hope this will give you the information you want.

May Heaven help you with your 67 exam books!

Cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Enclosure
SPW:EM

3th April, 1929

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Oncell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

When you were here you mentioned the name of the boy you thought of appointing for the present year and next, but I think you did not give me his address. If you can let me have both, we can arrange both at the next meeting of the Council to be held on Friday next.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

9th April, 1929

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Herewith is a letter from Spink and under separate cover I am sending you the catalogue. I have not opened it, so am unable to judge of their statement of its condition. I hope it will prove satisfactory.

Cordially yours,

Secretary

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

April 10

Dear Noe,

The boy for this year is Arthur L. Douglas jr, 415 Stewart Ave., Ithaca, home address New Gardens, N.Y. As usual, I have said nothing about it, so it will come to him as a pleasant surprise, if you can, in your notification, tell him what it is all about. I am not ready with my nomination for next year. I'll wait and make my selection from next Fall's class. I bought the coins I spoke of from Kellad. Was generous with him this time: paid him the asked price $15 for the Camirus, $25 apiece for the Lampsacus and Miletus, and $6.50 for the New Style Athens 4drachms. That ought to please him. Is it sure that this coin, which I enclose, is Miletus? I don't seem to satisfy myself about it. I cannot locate it in any of the things I have. I should be grateful for any help you or Mr. Newell could give me. The lion does not seem to me the Milesian lion and the Phoenician weight does not fit Miletus at this period. I may get down to see you all again Saturday, May 11.

W. E. D.

Yours ever,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "E. P. Moore". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name "E. P. Moore".

12th April, 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Thank you for your note of the 10th, which arrived in good time for the Council meeting today. I shall endeavor to make my notification a little more explicit than has been done heretofore in the hope that Mr. Douglas may be less mystified than some of the other boys have seemed to be.

Regarding your purchases from Kellad, Mr. Newell asked me to say that both the Euphrasieus and the Atlas pieces came from a find near Mitylene.

The coin you inclose is considered an uncertain mint of Lesbos, which has never been satisfactorily allocated. It looks as though we should have to wait for some hoard to establish its provenance.

We are looking forward to seeing you on May 11th.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

April 23

Dear Noe,

Here is my check for 7.75; ~~$6.75~~ for the Lucerne catalogue and one dollar credit on my postage account with you. I must be in your debt for almost that amount already. If you can get me a priced catalogue of the sale last summer, for comparison, I should like it.

Yours ever,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'C. F. A.' with a stylized flourish at the end.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

May 20

Dear Noe,

Here is the Thasos drachma. You will get a better cast than I should probably make. Mr. Newell was certainly very kind to give me the estimates on the Vellad coins and on the Chapman coins at Elder's sale. I had no expectation of his spending so much time and care on the Chapman estimates. Naturally I am wondering which of those coins fell to me this afternoon. We both hope that everything goes well with Mrs. Noe and the new daughter. It was hard luck for Helen to get out to New Brunswick and not meet your lady.

Always yours,

Erasmus P. Andrews

1st June, 1929

Professor Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

Herewith I am returning the Indian coin which you so kindly sent me, and under separate cover I am sending you a price list of the Neville XIII auction together with Dr. Litch's bill for it. If you have any difficulty in sending ten Swiss francs, send the bill back to me and I will pay it. We can settle after the rate of exchange has been fixed.

Very sincerely yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

June 3

Dear Noe,

The Thasos coin here, also the price-list of the last Naville auction. I cannot find that I have the auction-list itself, so the price-list doesn't mean much. Is it possible to get the auction catalogue at this late date? If you think that one could be obtained, even later, I shall be glad. I better return the bill to you, I suppose. Probably two dollars is near enough for ten Swiss francs, but I am not sure. As soon as you know I shall send check.

E.P.A.

11th June, 1929

Professor E. P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Responding to your letter, we happen to have a duplicate of the Haville XIII, for which you asked me to obtain the price list, and this I am sending you. I should suggest your having Dr. Hirsch place you on his mailing-list so that in future you will obtain similar catalogues. In the meantime, I am adding a copy of the forthcoming sale of his(KIV). $2.00 will be near enough for 10 Swiss Francs, so you may let me have your cheque.

Cordially yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

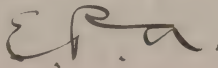

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

June 12

Dear Noe,

Here is the check for two dollars. You people are certainly helping me wonderfully. Of course the sensible thing is to ask Hirsch to put me on his mailing list. Could you sometime send me his address, or should it go to Naville? I am having my annual siege with the old malaria, from Boeotia in 1896. Have to take 15 grains of quinine every morning. The result is that I am so wuzzy that I hardly know what I am writing. Pretty big price to pay for a couple of happy weeks so long ago!

Yours ever,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'G. Smith', written in a cursive style.

24th June, 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews,
Cornell University

Dear Professor Andrews:

Through an aberration which I hope is temporary, I failed to weigh your Bigouris coin of Thessalonica when it was here. Could you let me have its weight, please?

Sorry to hear that you are visited with your scourge of malaria.

How long do you plan to remain at Ithaca.

Dr. Jacob Hirsch's address is 21, Quai du Mont-Blanc, Geneva.

Very cordially yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Sept. 2

Dear Nee,

The enclosed print, reversed of course, has been sent to me for identification. I do not know it, but I suppose that it will present no difficulties to you. Please help me. We have a car now and have had a lot of fun touring in New England. New business for me, but we are enjoying it a lot. Best regards from us both.

John Nee

7th September, 1929

Professor E. F. Andrews,
Cornell University,
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Professor Andrews:

The print which you sent me illustrates an utter fabrication. A similar letter was sent to Professor Weber of Princeton. This aberration turns up periodically in about a dozen varieties.

I am glad you have had such a good summer and hope you are rested. I am hoping to get in a couple of weeks' fishing at the end of the month, but it is not yet certain.

With regards to Mrs. Andrews, I am

Cordially yours,

V.S. Under separate cover I am sending you ten coins received from Albania, a list of which follows:

Invoice B1946

10. 3	E-pasa Imperial. Campaign in Caria B.C. 312	8C-12-0
4	E-phagium, Md. of Apollo. Triped	3-12-0
7	Nith-mia Prusias II, B.C. 180. Md. Dion-sos, Ventaur	3-3-6
8	Sicily Mamertini. Ptolemaios, Md. Apollo, Warrior	3-3-6
12	Maestia Thebes. Gdela' Md. Dion-sos 3-2	4-4-0
15	Pseisoria. Poseidon & trident/Pull	1-1
18	Metapontum. Ear of barley. Salomonander in dotted border. No incuse date	3-0-0
20	Angolis. Trezen B.C. 431-370. Md. of Athena/TPC in incuse sq.. Very rare existant	5-3-0
23	Sicily. Minera. Crab in sunken circle/cock 1.	3-0-0
25	Cyrene B.C. 321-308 Young head/Silphium	0-18-0

I hardly think they can be called bargains, but on the other hand I do not think the prices are unreasonable. You need not be in a great rush about returning them. If they get back by the first of October it will be all right.

October 1st 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Goldwin-Smith Hall
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

The three coins you returned and your check, have both been received. Thank you very much indeed.

Regarding further consignments, we have just had a lot from Spink. This time there are Athenian Tetradrachms of the new style. Some of them are in good condition and the prices are not unreasonable.
If you care to have us send them on to you, please write me. If I do not hear from you I shall understand that you do not want them.

Yours very sincerely,

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

Secretary

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

October 10

Dear Nos,

What under the sun is this? Who ever got out reproductions with Arabic numerals on them? This has been brought to me for identification and I had said "Caracalla" and then noticed the 4 under the bust. Seltran was here last night and knows of no series of reproductions from which it might have come. Seltran's lecture, by the way, was a great disappointment to me. Too elementary, in my opinion. All the lectures that come to us via Tanner are that way. Seltran says he was warned by Tanner to keep his lecture popular. I think it is a great mistake. One might better keep one's audience looking up and wishing it knew more than to sooth it with the idea that it must know a lot because the lecturer did not get over its head. Luce gave us a lecture some time ago that was utter riddle. I fear that the Arch. Inst. is getting into a very bad way.

If you can tell me about this brass I shall bless you.

Yours ever,

Andrew

100 - 100 - 100

V P S

Oct. 14, 1929

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Goldwin Smith Hall
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Referring to your letter of October 10th, the piece enclosed looks like a French Jeton - at least that is Mr. Newell's guess. It is certainly not ancient.

I am glad to have your reaction to Mr. Seltsman. I agree with your point of view, but then I have been one of Tanner's lecturers too, so perhaps I am prejudiced.

With cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews,

Yours very sincerely,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Jan. 17

Dear Foe,

by reg. mail

I am presuming to send you five coins which Mellad has sent me on approval. Can you give me an idea of what would be a fair price for them. I have searched in all the sales catalogues I have and find that I am at sea. The Batraos seems to me to be worth about $12. And that is about as far as I can go. The Elis reverse is Seltman's zeta theta.

Help me if you can. I shall send you in a week or so my candidate for the honorary membership, if it is still available.

Yours ever,

Andrew

January 14, 1930

Prof. Eugene P. Andrews
Goldwin Smith Hall
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

My impression of the Patros coin is none too clear. Do not hesitate to offer him twelve dollars for it. I think his price on the Ellis was also high. If you are tempted, make a lump offer for the two of them and you will not then need to feel at all bad if he does not accept it.

I am to-day cleaning up the consignment from Baldwin, from which you took a number of pieces. The rush in getting ready for our Annual Meeting and opening our new building last Saturday, has kept me from closing this up before. I hope the holding of your cheque will not have inconvenienced you. I should have cashed it long ago.

Of course the place for your candidate for membership is open. That is an annual appointment made possible by funds which provide an income to cover it. Mr. Douglas has been here several times and is doing some reading under my direction, and I think he is going to blossom into a real numismatist some day.

I hope it is not too late to wish you and your wife a Happy New Year,

Sincerely yours,

Secretary,

January 22, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Goldwin Smith Hall
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Responding to your telephone message,

Mr. Newell values the coins you sent me as follows:

Ephesus about twenty dollars

Patraos about fifteen dollars

Antigonus twenty-two to twenty-five dollars

Seleucus I ten to fifteen dollars

Elis under twenty-five dollars

I shall hold the coins for your instructions as it would be a very simple matter for me to hand them to Mr. Kellad if you decide to take none of them.

Regretting that you were under the necessity of telephoning me about them,

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
Feb. 1, 1930

Dear Noe,

Kellad has accepted my offer of $95 for the five coins. Keep them however, since my class is finished for the year and I can get them some time when I am down. Wish I might get down next week. Would there be anything in your hands for me to consider if I came, or has Mr. Newell any? Mrs. Brett writes that she has some for me to look at. By far my best student in coins this year has been Miss Dorothy F. Champlain, a Senior from Dunkirk, whose Ithaca address is Balch Hall, Unit III. William C. Pole, of a wealthy Cleveland family, Ithaca residence 102 Summit Ave., Alpha Delta Phi, a Junior, runs her a close second. He has the collector but and might perhaps be more useful to the Society, for Miss Champlain will doubtless go into teaching, whereas Bole will go into business and will have money. What do you think we better do in the matter of the honorary membership? Do you know what it is Mrs. Brett has, and would it pay me to come down for that?

Yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'E. A. A.' with a stylized flourish at the end.

February 4, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews:
Goldwin Smith Hall
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your note is at hand and I shall hold the coins for you until you get here, or until we send you something else. The only thing on hand now is a lot of Corinth and its Colonies, from Spink, with prices that are not low. You ask me what Mrs. Freet has and I can only answer by asking if you have seen her collection. Confidentially I would add that I do not think there are many bargains. As for Mr. Newell, I cannot speak definitely. He is gradually getting his collection into his new quarters, but I hardly think he has yet had time to do anything with duplicates. I wish I might write you differently, because we should very much like to see you here.

Regarding the two candidates of whom you write, Mr. Bole seems to me the more desirable from our point of view, in the light of your description. There is a small collection of Greek coins in the Cleveland Museum, and this, plus our publications, might keep alive the stimulus you have given him until he reaches the point where acquisitiveness will do its deadly work! However, the decision must rest with you, and I am merely responding to your question.

Please be assured that we shall be very glad if this letter induces you to come.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
Feb. 9

Dear Noe,

Another lot of coins from Kellal! Wonder if you know them or whether I better send them down. A Nero tetradrachm, Antioch. E.M.C. page 175, 198-200; Orthagoria, E.M.C. Page 88, no.2 (for the weight); Heraclea, Ith., E.M.C. p. 142, No. 22, (obverse off center). For these he asks, $6., $16, and $12 resp. $34 in all. I am tempted to offer him $25. for the three. What do you think? Lighty sorry I couldn't get down, but I had to get up to Oswego to see my sister instead. They are having a real winter up there. Kellal sent some others, by the way, but these three are all I can consider.

As ever,

E.P.A.

February 10th 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 9th is at hand. Mr. Newell tells me that the coin of Orthagoria is rare, and that sixteen dollars is very reasonable for it. I hope he means the one that you do, but I do not know that he had two of them. The price of this coin alone would make the thirty-four dollars he asks for the three of them, not exorbitant, but why not offer him the twenty-five dollars, and if he declines to accept it, you still have the possibility of raising your figure. If you feel like sending them along to make sure, or want to send them back with the others which I can then deliver to Kellad, do not hesitate to do so.

Cordially yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
Feb. 17

Dear Noe,

Kellad accepted my offer of $28 for the hero, (Antioch), Heracles, Pericles, and Orthagorion. I'll bet he would have taken 300, but who cares for three dollars, when it isn't his anyway? I guess you better send on the other coins. Afraid it will be some time now before I can get down. Or, if there is prospect of there being other coins which can be sent me on approval, wait and send it all in one bunch. I am busy as a pup killing snakes. Did I tell you I have over 170 pupils in my classes this term? I shall have to have help of course on the exam papers. Regards to the friends.

Sam

February 28th 1930

Professor F. P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Under separate cover I am sending you the coins mentioned in your letter of February 18th. I hope they will reach you in good condition.

I should think you would be busy with 170 students! May be they will make you want to come down here for a rest during the Easter vacation,--we shall bear them no grudge for that! Please say I asked to be remembered to Mrs. Andrews.

Sincerely,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

March 10

Dear Noe,

Thank you for your note of the sixth. The coins reached me safely. I enclose a dollar bill for your stamp box. I must have eaten into it about to that extent at various times since I contributed last. If I have run over please let me know. I want to keep square as far as I may. For your countless courtesies I shall remain in grateful indebtedness. My thanks to Mr. Wood for his advice as to the collection of Americana which the University wants to rid its vault of. Hope that I may get down at Easter. I get homesick for a talkfest with you all, and of course I want to see the new building. Many thanks for being nice to Douglas. He appreciates it hugely. Just back from a lecture trip to Buffalo. Lectured before the Historical Socy, and got real money for it. We drove up Thursday, for I was to give them the hero inscription stuff and the material was bulky. Had a very hard drive back yesterday, ice and snow. I never want another such drive. Of course you are with us oftener than you can realize, especially at our table. We want you back again before long, and, if we could be four, we should like it a lot. My regards to you all, which seems almost trite to say.

Ever yours,

C.R.H.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
March 13

Dear Noe,

Kellad has sent me the enclosed rubbings. I should rather like numbers 3, 4, and 5, if I could get them at reasonable prices. Can you suggest what seem to you and Mr. Kewell such reasonable prices. It seems to my ignorance that for 3, 50 or 55 ⁸³ would be fair. for 4, 110, and for 5, about 90. But I have so little to go on that I may be way over or way under. I should be grateful for a little steering.

Yours as ever,

E.P.H.

March 15, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

I showed your letter of the 13th to Mr. Newell yesterday, and his comment on the coins was as follows:

No. 3, with dates VI: the price of $80. for this is entirely fair and not high. It is one of the most desirable of the coins in the lot.

No. 4, Ptolemy II: for this $110. would be a fair price.

No. 5; the price you suggest, $90.00, would be very reasonable. Mr. Newell says the piece is one that he has seen, that it is in good condition, and that if it were perfectly centered would be worth a good deal more than $110.00.

I hope the above statements will simplify your decisions for you. I am returning the rubbings.

Very cordially yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

March 24

Dear Noe,

I bought the Mithradates, Ptolary II gold listator and Domestrian Poliorcetes from Kellad for $5, 110, and 100 resp., with some others which made the sale aggregate 365 for Kellad. As far as I can make out from my reader data of auction prices etc. I paid him enough but not foolishly. Hope it seems that way to you and Mr. Newell. He has sent me the enclosed rubbings. I want an Alex listator sometime. They seem to sell for all sorts of prices. I wonder if you and Mr. Newell could give me an idea as to a fair price for this one, which seems to be in good condition. Perhaps you have seen this coin, or maybe, as Kellad hints, he hasn't it yet. You might give me a hint, too, in regard to the Passage and the Glazovians, if you will. Guess I am going to have to get up to Cawago for the vacation next week to help my sister with some business.

Sorry I cannot get down.

Yours as ever,

Eugene P. Andrews

March 25, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter was shown to Mr. Newell and he thought you did very well with the three pieces secured from Kellad. Regarding the rubbings, Mr. Newell said that the Lysimachus was dirt cheap, and that the price on the others were in no single case excessive. It is necessary to pay the amount asked to get a good di-stater these days. Do you not think, however, that you should protect yourself by seeing the coins before you accept them? I too, am sorry that you will not get down to New York next week. Please give my greetings to Mr. Andrews, and believe me,

Ever sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Dictated but not read.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK
March 26

Dear Noe,

Thank you and Mr. Newell for your prompt help in the matter of the Kellad rubbings. I have asked Kellad to send me the coins for inspection when he gets them. I have just received Elter's last catalogue of a sale to be held April 10-12. to. 1891, with Hercules striding his dog. interests me. Does anybody know anything about this coin of his? Or have you all been included in his grouch on Wood? I fancy he has sense enough to allow Mr. Newell to remain in his good graces, however, and I cannot of course imagine anyone getting sore on you. My dollar bill reached you I suppose. I want to be sure to keep up my end of the postage charge and hope you will not let me abuse your generosity. As to the debt I owe you all in ever increasing measure for your priceless help, there is no chance for me ever to hope to repay, except as I keep the voice crying in the wilderness, which isn't such a desolate wilderness after all.

What a lot of junk Elder does get hold of! but it has to be sold by some one. And what an awful greenhorn I was when I first began to nibble at his bait! I wish I thought I was going to live long enough to get to know something about coins. It is such a hopeless task up here all alone.
But with you good friends meeting me in the spirit with which you meet me, I feel encouraged to keep plugging.

Yours always,

E. P. A.

March 28, 1930

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Goldwin Smith Hall
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 23th is at hand.

Regarding the Elder No. 1621, Mr. Newell says that there will doubtless be considerable competition for this. He has not seen it as yet so far as he knows. He added that considerable part of the junk in the rest of the sale of which you make mention, comes from among his duplicates.

Thank you yes, your dollar bill did reach us.

As to helping you further, please feel that we shall always be glad to do so.

Sincerely,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

June 26

Dear Noe,

The Thasos binennis coin weighs 3.567 grams. We have a car now. it belonged to Helen's sister who died Christmas. We both have learned to drive and have our licenses, so we shall probably spend most of the summer hereabout seeing something of this beautiful country. We may think it best to get out into the Rockies again, but that is not decided yet. Thank you for the address.

With best regards to you all,

Andrew

July 14, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

This is a double barrelled - possibly tripple barrelled - epistle.

1. Have you seen the article by Meader and White in "The Classical Journal" for February 1930, page No. 367, on modern counterfeiting of ancient coins? Did you inspire it?

2. We wrote to William Carnegie Bole, regarding his appointment, without having had a response from him. Do you suppose he is just plain locoed, or that he does not want to be bothered with the matter?

3. I am particularly delighted that we have Miss Work with us during the summer, and that our card file is being brought up-to-date under her energetic supervision. She tells me that it is not likely that you will go any distance for a vacation this summer, and this is sufficient notice that if you come within striking distance of New York without letting us see you, that you better not tell us about it afterwards! I hope that it will prove a restful season for you and Mrs. Andrews. My family is at Lake Champlain where I had a week after moving them up there. I am to have another when they come back, but I do not anticipate that the latter will prove any more restful than the former did!

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

July 24

We drove up yesterday, about 275 miles, and arrived here in time to get into the shops to buy things for the larder. It was a beautiful day and a delightful drive over the mountains of Pennsylvania. Came via Bear Mt. and Carbondale. Mr. Wheeler offered to deliver the package of coins and the two pamphlets, to Wood and you, by messenger from his office. I trust the delivery was successful. Evidently Pink's article, published in 1925, is not the method being used now, for this new process takes months instead of days, and replaces the copper, instead of simply dissolving the salt so that it can be brushed off. I found your letter last night on our return. I shall jack up Bole to at least make a recent acknowledgment of the honor. I am sure Miss York is just the help you need for the job, intelligent, efficient, and energetic. I cannot imagine a better for the work. I enclose the check, for $22.75, for the coins you let me select from Mr. Newell's duplicates. Please give him my thanks, and also thank Mr. Wood for the loan of the coins. They were much interested out at Locust Valley, although they could hardly credit the miracle. Mrs. Andrews thought we met Mr. Wood driving Monday afternoon, when we were on our way in the Wheeler car back to Locust Valley from blistering N.Y. It is always such joy to get back home with you people. I wish that I could measure it often. Next week I suppose we shall be starting in the car for Michigan, and so the summer will be all too soon gone. Our best regards to you all. If he, himself, were made the defender state to show anyone, as a bad example of an extremely rare variety, it is his command, of course.

C. R. A.

July 28, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 24th enclosing cheque, has been received; thank you very much. We also received the package delivered by Mr. Wheeler.

It was nice of you to write as you did about your visit. You are not the only one that enjoys it when you come! I am sorry you missed seeing Mr. Newell this time but I too hope that you can get here oftener, and that the interval between this and your next visit will not so long.

With cordial regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Sent 11

Dear Noe,

We have a car now, a seven-passenger La Salle, and are having the time of our lives. Just back from 2000 miles of New England. Mary thanks for branding the clumsy thing as a fake. The coins from Baldwin interest me. I shall keep a number. We are starting tomorrow morning for Pittsburgh and I blew in just now from a brief visit to my sister in Oswego, so I have no time to settle on just which coins I want, but we shall be back before the 26th, when instruction begins, and I shall determine the matter therefore before Oct. first, as you suggest. We should like a lot to take you and the family for a spin in our extravagance. Our best to you all.

I am leaving the coins in the safe in my office.

Ever yours,

Andrews

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Oct. 4

Dear Noe,

I don't believe I need any more of the late tetradrachms unless there are some especially interesting. You haven't one with the tyrannicides, have you? (I am trying to be funny). But if there are some other things besides the 4drachms I should be glad to see them. I shall get them back promptly. I shall be grateful, as I said, ~~for~~a chance at almost any consignment that comes in.

Andrew

the post I picked out from a Baldwin lot which had been sent you a Corinth stater, 400-350, Pegasus walking left, Pallas right, dolphin in field right, rose left. At the time apparently I catalogued it: "Babelon III. page 410. 503., Dolphin not noticed, Plate CCX, 9." I cannot now recall what work of Babelon's that was, probably nothing I have at hand. Still a dealer.

I lectured in Buffalo last Friday before the N.Y. State Teachers' Association. It was Miss Harriet Coman, of 275 Bryant St., North Torawania, who got me up there. I showed them my gold stater of Lysimachus as an example of one side of ancient cleverness. The audience would hardly believe it, of course. Miss Coman teaches Latin. She asked me where she could get a few coins. I found that she especially wanted one showing J. Caesar's head. I told her about you and how nice you'd be to her if she wrote you. If she does write you I hope you can help her. You may be able to tell her where she might get what she wants.

Mrs. Andrews has had another hospital experience, this time gall-bladder and appendix. She has come through extraordinarily. "As out of the hospital in one day less than two weeks. She is trying now not to expect to get her strength all back at once. But it is hard to go slow. I am sure that she will be able to get on her feet in a few days."

E. R.

November 14, 1930

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Department of Classics
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of the 12th was welcome, the more so because it reported that Mrs. Andrews is recovering from her operation satisfactorily even though slowly. Can you not persuade her to give herself up to resting unreservedly? I hope she will soon be entirely out of any danger.

Regarding your query, the reference to the Corinth stater is undoubtedly to Babelon's "Traite"; this, you will recall, is still in the course of publication. In fact we have just received word that fascicle IV has recently appeared.

Glad to hear you are going back into the lecture field - you will detect that this is not intended as a joke! I shall be very glad to respond to Miss Coman if she writes me, and hope we can persuade her to come here sometime when she is in New York. You perhaps know that I have just gotten back from another jaunt for the Institute. In the south this time: Roanoke, Huntington, W.Va., and Marietta, Ohio. I met a former pupil of yours at Huntington; he is now in journalism there. I think his name was Laird.

My wife was concerned to hear of Mrs. Andrews' illness. I hope that you will be able to write soon that she has entirely recovered.

Sincerely yours,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Jan. 22

Dear Noe,

Please don't think that I am a raider aunt because I got worried about the pastage of coins. At any rate it was good to hear your voice again. In answer to your question as to what I think of these coins: I am not crazy over any of them. The Seleucus looks a bit queer to me and the monogram is not according to Hoyle, is it? Shouldn't there be a Y growing out of the top of one hasta of the M? I have no Patraes but don't have to have one. The Artiscrus apparently sells at auction for 125 fr. The Ephesus is is a nice coin. His "prices" are Ephesus 125., Patraes 25, Artiscrus 25, Seleucus 25, This he says is offered for sale by a patron of his and he wants me to make an offer. I can get no line as to how these Elis coins sell. Just as a rough guess I should think that $100 would be generous for the five, and maybe that is more than I ought to offer. If you people can help me with some sort of idea as to a fair price for each and also for a lump offer for all, I shall be grateful. The only reason I called was to make sure that you have the coins, not at all to hurry your help. If Kellad calls me I shall tell him I am still considering. Hope I can get down and see the new bldg.

and you all as well, of course.

E. P. R.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Feb. 1, 1900

Dear Wood,

I am sending you by registered mail a couple of silver coins which were brought to me for identification. The owner says they came from near Beirut. I cannot find them among Byzantine coins and now suspect they are Heretican perhaps. But my ignorance on medieval coins is so dense that I venture to ask your help. If you will please endorse the cataloguing on the envelopes I shall be grateful. The person also, as is usual with such instances, wants to know if the coins have any sale value and how much approximately. Thank you for the letter to Browne about the zero inscription which you sent me. It brings back memories of happy days longer ago than I like to realize. My best remembrance to Hewell and Noe. I hope I am not imposing on your kindness by passing these coins on to you. My idea is that you will spot them instantly, whereas I might have to spend more time on them than they are worth. Please tell Noe that the best man, by far, in my coin class this term was one of the boys who called at the building during the Holidays, a certain Jack Albert Dorland, the Bellevue Apts. Ithaca, whose home address is West Seneca, N.Y. and if the honorary membership is still available, I should like it to go to him, and I feel sure that he will prove to be the best addition we have had in some years. He is going on with doing this term in special work with me. I really think that he is promising material, and his home will make him apt to use the Socy more.

Yours ever,

Eugene P. Andrews.

Of course I shall, upon the return of the coins

Feb. 2

Dear Poe,

Yes, that is the boy. A splendid brain apparently and keen interest in the subject, and he lives at West Orange. I really think that he is the best material, i.e. the most promising, that I have passed on to you ^{in this series}. He is going to keep on with coins this term also. I am glad that Douglas is keeping on. He is not as good material to begin with as Dorland, but is really interested and may develop into a useful member. I am glad that Miss Work has started anarbeit. She is a fine woman and an excellent student; by far, of course the best I have helped ^{her} with the bug. By the way, one of my women-graduates of last year would like to get into some sort of museum work. She is quite an extraordinary young woman; about the most promising student I have ever had. She saw through the sham of much of the courses in so-called pedagogy and refused to waste her time on some of them, so she did not do as many hours in "pedagogy" as the department would like, and they are not inclined to help her find a job. It would be a shame, anyway, for her to be wasted on high-school teaching. She would make good in any museum, I am sure. She lives in Dunkirk, and hasn't much money I fancy. I wish that there were some way for you to meet her and size her up and then to keep her in mind if you hear of anything's turning up. My ribbon is worn out, as you see; hence you can read this message.

Always yours

Andrews

This Miss Champlin I've been talking about has what I call a steel-trap brain, quick as a flash, decisive, independent, refused to be bulldozed by the "pedagogy" experts.

February 24, 1931

Professor E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your letter of February 18th to Mr. Wood has been referred to me regarding the appointee for 1931. If Mr. Dorland is the shorter, direct-eyed young fellow who called here during the holidays, I am mighty glad that he is to be the recipient of your award for this year. I am glad he is going on with you as there is a possibility of usefulness for trained numismatists that will have increased by the time he is ready to graduate. If he shows any inclination to follow the calling, I shall be glad to have him get in touch with me when the time comes. Mr. Douglas has qualified this year and I think he feels that he is getting something through coming up here once or twice a month as he does. Also, as I think you probably know, Miss Work is planning something that should enable one to recognize the various Roman Emperors from their coin portraits. So I hope you will feel that you can see some fruitage to your efforts in this direction, which is more than is given to many teachers of archaeology to-day.

Please give my warm regards to Mrs. Andrews.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

March 14, 1931

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Here is a carbon of my letter to Mr. Dorland, for such reinforcement as may be possible for you to give it. I am mighty glad I met this young fellow.

Your letter about Miss Champlin interests me and I shall certainly keep her in mind. Should she come to New York, please ask her to come and see me - I hardly feel that there is anything in prospect immediately to suggest her coming for this purpose alone. Is there anything that you could suggest my doing in the meantime?

With cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews,

Very cordially yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

April 3

Dear Mr. [unclear]

Thank you for your information about the Elder number 1621. I suppose that the word "junk" was used unadvisably in regard to the rest of the edition. Hope the expression did not offend Mr. Newell. Or was he only amused? Wish I were with you this week, but a business session in Greece, where I am trying, in vain so far, to find a buyer for the property, for the benefit of my sister, took up a large part of the time, and now I am trying to dig out from under an accumulation of work so as to be able to meet my classes next week in better spirits. Probably Mr. Newell didn't think that any of his duplicates would interest me.

Yours always,

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

April 16

Dear Noe,

also the coin

The book is here and also your letter in regard to the "Miletus" coin. I could not see how it could be Miletus. The Lucerne catalogue is of the 1923 sale. I think that I shall be very glad to have it and shall remit to you for it, plus the postage, but I was under the impression that you were trying to get me the 1928 sale. The prices in 1928 will show some increase over those in this 1923 sale, I can imagine. I have a notice that the Managing Com. of the Athens School has a meeting at Columbia the morning and probably the afternoon of May 11th, but I do not know that I am interested to be there to ratify the doings of the "gang", so I think that I shall prefer to stay with you people. I shall be glad if there happen to be some lots of coins for me to go over by then. I shall remit for the 1923 sale book unless you ordered the '28 sale and they sent this by mistake.

Yours ever,

C. H.

April 21, 1931

Professor Eugene P. Andrews
Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Would you be at all interested in any of the pieces described on the accompanying list? They belong to one of our members who is desirous of cashing in on them. I shall be glad to send them to you but I refrain from doing so until I have submitted this proposal to you. If you are not at all interested I shall be glad to have a prompt response in order that they may be offered to another individual who might consider the last two.

Douglas comes up here every other Saturday or so and we frequently speak of you and Mrs. Andrews. I hope that you are both well and that we shall see you if you get down this way.

With cordial regards to you both,

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Apr. 22

Dear Sir,

I don't believe I'm interested in any of the fine coins. I'm grateful, just the same, for giving me a chance at them. Maybe I'm wrong, but the prices strike me as high. I bought a tetradrachm of Alex. Sele for Mr. Small in March '24 for $5. I'm returning the list for you next "prospect." Glad Douglas is still interested. It's nice to hear of my boys still at it. I fear that England may leave Mr. Davies and I on our own.

One book to you both. One of the Vice-presidents of the American Numismatic Society of London has recently bought a number of coins from a "bust dealer." His name is Joseph P. Harris. Small '61. I'm interested in him for his and he seems interested. I may say I'm in a number.

Yours,
A. H. M.

April 24, 1931

Professor Eugene P. Andrews

Cornell University

Ithaca, New York

Dear Professor Andrews:

Your note of the 22nd is at hand. I am glad of the word regarding Mr. Harris. Should you have occasion please tell him we should be glad to welcome him here when he is in New York.

Cordial ly yours,

Secretary.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS

GOLDWIN SMITH HALL
ITHACA, NEW YORK

Sept 7

Dear Noe,

I am keeping all but three of the coins, the Wundlemus, Rhegium and Cyrene. Those I retain amount to 16 pounds, 12 shillings, which I call tax. University check enclosed. I hope that this computation leaves you even on the postage and registration. If it doesn't, tell me and I shall make good. Many thanks for sending the coins up. As you say, they do not seem to me bargains, so far as my limited knowledge carries me, but I am glad to have them. The work starts today. We have had a lot of fun out of our La Salle car and the summer is pleasant to look back on. I hope that you will give me a look-in on future consignments of coins. You can send them up, now that I am on the job, and expect to have them back the second day. Our best to you both.

Ever yours,

Andrew

October 31, 1931.

Prof. Eugene P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York.

Dear Prof. Andrews:

I am to give my talk on "Coin Words" in Cleveland and thought it might be convenient to ask Mr. W. C. Bole, your colleague of ten years ago, invited, if he cared to come to it. We have only his Ithaca address and I assume that he has since graduated. Would you be so kind as to have the enclosed readdressed to him, in case he is no longer in Ithaca.

Very cordially yours,

BB:JC

enclosed note to Mr. Bole

Nov. 4

Dear Mr. [unclear]

Bob is still here. Address 109 Summit Ave. A Δ Φ. Am much disappointed in his apparent lack of interest. Guess he had me fooled. I sent your letter to him and he promises to acknowledge it. There are some people in Belmont I should like to have given the chance to hear you. One is J. P. Harris, Union Trust Co.; the other's name I cannot recall. Helen and I were invited to his house at the instance of Mr. S. Halliday, also Union Trust Co. Harris could find out from Halliday his name. Do ask him not to call it to mind. He is really a scholar and has a collection of various other good antiquities. I found out for him that the Public Library has a set of the B.M. catalogues, in the "White Collection."

If you could have an invitation sent to Harris and could find out from Halliday the other man's name (I can think of nothing but Lewis) and get him a card too, I'd like it. They are both men who ought to know you. I got a sight of the Art Museum's coins by the way.
Some good ones, but not used. Where in broadland will the lecture be and when? And what organization puts it on? Ever yours, C.F. Johnson

Nov. 10

Dear Ned,

The address I couldn't think of is
Louis West, 2581 Stratford Road, Cleveland Heights. He is just the sort of scholar who ought to be there. I think I gave you J. P. Harris, Union Trust Co. I should also like to have Mr.
and Mrs. Tell Berna (Berna), 2433 Woodmere Drive, Cleveland Hts. invited, if possible.
With I could be there myself.

Sutton lectures as always.
See the 19th

E. P. A.

November 16, 1931.

Prof. E. P. Andrews
Cornell University
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Prof. Andrews:

Although your note reached here after I had left, you will be interested to know that Mr. West was elected president of the Cleveland Chapter at the meeting at which I spoke. Mr. Harris was not present but it is hardly to be surprised at because the meeting was held three or four miles out from the city in one of those lovely little residences that are strewn anywhere within a five mile limit. I met Professors Bill and Scott. The chapter seems to be fairly well organized. I wish I might have stopped off at Ithaca but train service would not have permitted this. Cordial regards to Mrs. Andrews please.

Very truly yours,

SN:JG